DAVIS THEATRE.

Million Dollar Mystery Today and Tomorrow.

In addition to the regular vaudeville show at the Davis today, the 17th episode of the Million Dollar Mystery will be shown. This two-act installment is called A Battle of Wits and is more thrilling than any of the preceding episodes shown here. Ten thousand dollars in cash will be paid to the person who sends in the best 100-word solution of this great mystery photo-drama. There are five more episodes to be shown after this week, and there is no time to lose. Get your solution ready and send it in after the last episode is shown. The vaudeville show at the Davis today is a lively singing, talking and dancing specialty that is a big winner. Kelly and Berg have an original comedy skit introducing some light singing and dancing with a burlesque band finish that is a scream. Billy Barron is the third act and he does a musical act, playing saxophone, xylophone and one-string violin. The remainder of the bill consists of Mutual movies, including the Mutual War Weekly, showing many scenes from the seat of war, and the funny Keystone comedy called Shot in the Excitement, a sure cure for the blues. Matinee daily at 2:30; 5 and 10 cents. Evening at 7 and 9:30; 10, 15, and reserved seats 20 cents.

TODAY

Coming to Davis Theatre.
With enthusiastic endorsements from Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont and Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish and other New York society leaders, today, by George Broadhurst and Abraham Schomer, comes to Davis theatre on Wednesday evening, Nov. 25th.

Love of luxury and personal adornment, idleness among women, and the craze for vulgar display and outdoing one's neighbors—the pernicious elements that have developed into the national disease—are themes, frankly and dramatically discussed in Today. It was the drama longest on the New York stage last season, when it sounded a warning that will do more than any sermon to preserve the sanctity of the American home.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Sousa Endeavors to Please Every Taste
The Sousa library is the accumulation of 30 years or more, a getting-together of the greater and lesser products of composers of all time and degrees, from the first down to the last. Nobody knows how many arrangements there are, multiple parts of each fields. He is prompted to taste them with the inevitable result. From then on it is a slow, steady work. It is to become companionable even with strangers when Barleymore is present. How he is tempted again and again to make a string of gold heads, in what circumstances. Splendid scenes in Japan are shown; the whole picture is calculated to present the dangers of intemperance. A leading natural but impressive manner. It is easily the greatest picture of its kind ever shown in this theatre and remains for today only. Matinee 10c, evening 10c.

BIG TIME EXPECTED AT BOAT CLUB BALL

Joseph D. Devine to Give Exhibition of One-Step, Hesitation and Maxixe—Drew's Full Orchestra.

Plans are now completed for the big ball at the armory Thanksgiving night to be given by the Chelsea Boat club of this city, and judging from the advance sale of tickets things look like a most promising and enjoyable dance. The committee in charge of the affair have put untiring efforts into the plans to make it a most enjoyable evening for the people of the city. The highest order of music in detail for their comfort has been taken up and it is expected that it will prove to be one of the big social affairs of the season.

The services of Joseph D. Devine and partner have been secured to give an exhibition of the new dances, consisting of the three following principal ones: the one-step, the hesitation and the famous maxixe. Mr. Devine has recently returned from New York, where he took lessons from some of the leading dance teachers and he is now kept busy daily giving lessons and holding private classes in this and neighboring places.

The boxes which are on sale at the store of George A. Davis are going rapidly and those desiring them should place their orders immediately. It is expected that before the week is past all of them will be taken.

Drew's full orchestra has been procured and this will prove to be music of the highest order. The orchestra is to render a concert programme from 8 until 9 and dancing will be from 9 to 1 o'clock.

One Cause of Bad Complexion—the Cure

"Look at a section of skin under the microscope and you will readily understand why cosmetics generally injure the complexion," says Dr. H. Robert Jones. "The skin is a network of tiny holes, mouths of myriads of little glands, and should be kept healthy these holes must be unobstructed, that the perspiration and natural oils can have free outlet. Should the glands be blocked up with irritating greasy particles, common cause of using powders and creams. Nature retaliates by causing sallowness, redness, blotches and pimples."

"As a substitute for all cosmetics I recommend ordinary mercurized wax. It not only does what the various face preparations are supposed to accomplish, but its peculiar absorbent action frees the pores from the daily accumulation of impurities, also absorbing the devitalized particles of surface skin. This produces a healthy, natural, youthful complexion. One ounce of this wax is sufficient to remove the poorest complexion. It is put on nightly like cold cream and washed off mornings."—Family Physician.

COLONIAL THEATRE.

Jack London's Life Story, John Barclay-corn, in Six Reels Today.

Political Gossip

Stories circulating throughout the state that Attorney C. J. Danaher of Meriden may be named as the next commissioner of compensation at a salary of $4,000 a year, succeeding Commissioner George R. Chandler, were today at rest by Mr. Danaher, who declared that he is not a candidate for the commission and for any political office under any circumstances.

Matthew H. Kenealy, son of Michael Kenealy, former chairman of the republican state central committee has announced himself a candidate for election as assistant clerk of the house of representatives. Mr. Kenealy is a young lawyer, formerly clerk in his father's firm in Stamford. His entrance to the contest has disturbed the other candidates and the talk today was that some of them would withdraw in his favor.

Among those who have applied to Congressman-elect P. Davis Oakley for the position of private secretary are J. Verner Anderson and Deputy Sheriff Albert Simmons of this city. It is understood in the state capital that William D. Parker of Meriden is a candidate for the position of labor commissioner, to succeed P. H. 1915, whose term expires July 1. Mrs. Parker was formerly a clerk in the labor bureau. He was first appointed to a clerkship in the bureau by late Robert J. Vance when he was labor commissioner. He is now promoted to the chief clerkship by Judge Harry E. Back of Killingly when he was head of the bureau.

Says the New York Sunday Herald: Talk is rife that Frank E. Healy will have contestants for the speakership in Colonel William Henry Hall, Wethersfield, and Dr. Hart Fenn, of Wethersfield. Colonel Hall has been down in Atlanta, Ga., attending the American Road Congress, and he is expected to return to the state capital. He and Mr. Fenn are legislative veterans, serving ever and anon in the senate or senate for a good many sessions.

Colonel Eaton likewise has received considerable mention during the last week in connection with the speakership, but it is not believed that he would permit his name to be entered in opposition to Mr. Healy, although he is a different side of the big remainder of the bill consists of Mutual movies, including the Mutual War Weekly, showing many scenes from the seat of war, and the funny Keystone comedy called Shot in the Excitement, a sure cure for the blues. James H. MacDonald, who is the beneficiary of considerable clamor concerning the thirty over an American and Connecticut societies of Civil Engineers, the American Public Health association and the New England Water Works association. In giving Mr. MacDonald deserved credit for Connecticut's good roads system, offhand observers obviously overlook the essential element of opportunity, which was afforded only through Mr. MacDonald's determined efforts. But Mr. MacDonald cheerfully asserts that the state of Connecticut made a good highway commissioner, and it is a stamp of approval which counts. That Mr. MacDonald is recognized by the country as a leader in authority on good roads the report of the proceedings of the American Road Congress the last week abundantly testifies.

TO HAVE BEAUTIFUL HAIR—NO DANDRUFF

Use Parisian Sage. It Makes the Hair Soft and Fluffy, Surely Stops Itching Head.

If your hair is anything short of perfect, if it is losing color, too dry, brittle, thin, or if the scalp burns and itches, immediately begin the use of Parisian Sage. The first application removes all dandruff, cures and invigorates the scalp, and beautifies the hair until it is gloriously radiant.

Parisian Sage supplies all hair needs and does not injure either the hair or scalp. It contains the exact elements needed to make the hair soft, wavy, glossy, and to make it grow long, thick and beautiful. It is delicately perfumed—not sticky or greasy, and can be had at Lee & Osmond's or any drug or toilet counter.

Parisian Sage acts instantly—any application stops the head from itching and freshens up the hair. You will be surprised and delighted with this helpful toilet necessity. For itching else is so good for the hair and scalp, and nothing so quickly beautifies the hair, giving it that enviable charm and fascination, which make it one of the quickest acting hair tonics known—inexpensive and easily used at home.

GLIMPSES OF COMING PROSPERITY ARE VISIBLE

Hopeful Outlook for American Ventures, Says Secretary Redfield

Washington, Nov. 16.—While the forces of destruction are being mobilized in ever-increasing strength in the warring countries of Europe, constructive agencies, public and private, are at work on this side of the Atlantic and resources of peace are being concentrated to overcome the effects of the old world war. All information reaching governmental departments here indicates that the gloom and depression, which overtook business enterprises in the United States when the war storm burst, is slowly drawing aside and glimpses of present and coming prosperity are visible.

The hopeful outlook for American ventures was summarized today by Secretary Redfield in a letter to the chamber of commerce of the United States, in which he declared: "Let the worst be said and admitted that the country is respecting existing business difficulties in America, our condition still remains not only relatively bright, but rapidly improving and in many respects both prosperous and promising."
